

In-Sessional Academic Study Skills Support

Our In-Sessional Academic Study Skills Support course is perfect if you are an international BPP University student who wants, or is required, to improve your English and study skills while studying your undergraduate or postgraduate degree programme. The course takes place during your first term, alongside your degree studies. You may have to attend the course as a condition of starting your degree or other programme. If this is the case, it will be a compulsory part of your studies.
